Katzinger's Delicatessen - Locally owned and operated since 1984!

Our sandwiches are famously big and delicious! Each comes in two sizes to please any appetite and budget. All sandwiches come with help-yourself-from-the-barrel traditional "old" or garlicky "new" Dill pickles.

Welcome to Katzinger's Delicatessen! Our award-winning New York style delicatessen was opened in 1984 by Steve and Diane Warren in historic German Village. Nothing has changed in our mission to bring the best quality foods to the Columbus area over the years! Just like day one our kitchen prepares everything from scratch (though not our fresh, crusty style breads which are delivered daily from Mediterra Bakehouse in Pittsburgh) including soups, salads and desserts from original recipes created by our food loving staff. Our award-winning delicatessen also offers many specialty foods, including artisan cheeses, meats, dry goods and breads, and a catering department that provides the entire city of Columbus with deli platters, appetizers, entrée salads and homemade desserts.

Our sandwiches come in two sizes:

Regular (almost 4 ounces) or DELI-SIZE (almost 8 ounces)
